Ripley County, located in the center of a triangle of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, OH, and Louisville, KY, is full of rich heritage and beauty. The northern part of the county is steeped in history, with a German restaurant, bakery, and world-known master carvers in Batesville. Basketball is a favorite sport in the area, and the Milan '54 Basketball Museum shares the story of the inspiration for the movie "Hoosiers." Milan is also home to the ever-popular Villa Milan Winery. A people of strong faith shows in the variety of architectural designs of churches throughout the county, including the very unique Tyson Temple Methodist Church in Versailles. Also near Versailles is one of the two covered bridges in the county and the Versailles State Park. The southern part of the county is home to the National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association, which holds fall and spring shoots in the beautiful valley of Friendship. Getting to all parts of Ripley County is a breeze, as I-74, U.S. 50, S.R. 421, and S.R. 62 all pass through the peaceful countryside.

Amenities:
